February 15, 2006. Raymond Trotter, Live Oak, pro se. Charles J. Crist, Jr., Attorney General, Tallahassee, and Richard Valuntas, Assistant Attorney General, West Palm Beach, for appellee. STONE, J. In this, his second appeal, appellant, Trotter, seeks reversal of the summary denial of his motion to correct an illegal sentence, filed pursuant to rule 3.800(a). After his motion was denied, Trotter filed a motion for rehearing and argued the same grounds set forth in his initial motion to correct illegal sentence. The state filed a response and attached documentation in support of its assertion that the sentence was proper. In denying the motion to correct an illegal sentence, the trial court found that the sentence reflected the plea *976 of the agreement and that there was no evidence to support appellant's contention that the plea was not entered in 82138339de
