Cape Town - Springbok flanker RG Snyman has been ruled out of Saturday's World Cup clash against Ireland at Twickenham after leaving the field in the 60th minute with a hamstring injury. The 24-year-old suffered the injury in the 57th minute and was taken off on a stretcher. Snyman will undergo scans on Tuesday to determine the extent of the injury. READ: Snyman news Speaking at the post-match press conference Snyman said: "I had a hamstring tear, I thought it was a little bit tight. "The first 20m I had no problems. It was only after the next 10m when it started to bother me. I tried to walk it out but after 15m I had to come off. "The physios did an amazing job, they got me out of the pitch and took me straight to hospital. I got scanned and it is a grade 1 hamstring tear. "It is a big blow for us. We have lost two key players and now we need to regroup and get ourselves ready for the game. The Irish came out very well, we just couldn't keep up with them. It's a bad loss and hopefully we can use this as a learning curve for the rest of the tournament 79a2804d6b
