Vertical Align images with border-radius on hover I'm trying to create a simple slider that contains thumbnails of products which are vertically centered when the slide completes. I have created the following JSFiddle to demonstrate. My problem is, when I hover over the images, the border-radius doesn't center the images. I have added a border-radius to each image and tried to fix this using vertical-align:middle, but this isn't working. Here is my HTML:
