Oh my! What a beautiful bloodbath! We had brought down an empire And it's gone with a whoosh Where we used to serve it tea I am alive to tell the tale Pride and more pride we've got to hide It's tough to live the lie. For the Young and the Free People with tents and weapons in the streets, People who've come to take the last man's dignity, People who've come to take the last man's dignity, People with nothing to lose, they're willing to die When the girls shake their hips, oh, I can't wait While they live to tell the tale For the Young and the Free Oh my! What a beautiful bloodbath! We had brought down an empire And it's gone with a whoosh Where we used to serve it tea I am alive to tell the tale Oh my! What a beautiful bloodbath! We had brought down an empire And it's gone with a whoosh Where we used to serve it tea I am alive to tell the tale For the Young and the Free Oh my! What a beautiful bloodbath! We had brought down an empire And it's gone with a whoosh Where we used to serve it tea I am alive to tell the tale For the Young and the Free Oh my! What a beautiful bloodbath! We had brought down an empire And it's gone with a whoosh Where we used to serve it tea I am alive to tell the tale If you love ones everything from the beats to the hos- tores and the way they're all connected with one another's - everything that comes with a history of 150 pages of love, hate, stupidity, tears, kisses - then you need to read. If you want to know about what really goes on in a Mumbai mafia office; about a man who is hungry, tired, scared of dying, dead all the time and above all loving you want to read about. Then this book is exactly for you. Why did Priyanka chop the hands of the man in the middle? Why was
